The Things That Count

Quality of Fabric, Skill of Tailoring. Knack for Styling

We insist on these things in all our clothes. It's easy to find one or two of these essentials of clothing in some products, but to find the three in one is a rarity.

Alfred Benjamin Washington Co.'s Clothes are an embodiment of all three and for style reasons appeal to men of discernment and appeal to all who have ever worn these clothes for the durability of fabric and the hold-together-ness of the tailoring.
